

Deadlock, Losers' Ballet

come on now you sinners and angels without wings the dance of the fools is about to begin why should you fear what cannot be avoided it is time to dance your lives away it's the losers ballet
the mission is set - let it be done put on your dancing shoes before you enter the heat of the ballroom enjoy the masses coming to see you perform while you dance in the fire of your world going down and you will dance like the maggots in your flesh

the dance of the fools is about to begin
why should you fear what cannot be avoided
it's the losers ballet

so come on and dance like there is no tomorrow and I promise that there will be no tomorrow for you how elegantly you dance you little son of a whore set by step till your feet start to bleed - bleeding to death

first position: wolves leave their marks in your misbegotten body second position: blood stains each of your dancing steps third position: you are alone on the dancefloor - a dance with wolves fourth position: they are howling while the hordes from hell come for you the fifth and last position: close your eyes loser, before you grow cold and angels soar into the sky while hell is coming down on you this was your last dance in the losers ballet
