

Deadman, Slow Dance

horizon line calls to me stretching wide and serpentine promise me what i adore makes me want you even more even more even more gypsies ride through my room call my name come with us soon travel miles under cruel moons night is fading will light soon will light soon will light soon slow dance
slow slow dance the dance hall's empty it's you and me music flows like blood through me surely others think it's strange deep in me a sad song plays sad song plays sad song plays lights above the ceiling fan cast their shadows as i dance the stars are bright the moon is full music's slow and beautiful beautiful beautiful slow dance
slow dance
when we slow
when we slow dance
when we slow dance
