

Deadman, The Ballad Of The Gold Thief

there's a story that's worth telling a thousand pounds of gold is filling a well in southern mexico they say a handsome man he took that gold he buried it down deep below where no one else could find it except for one yeah and who's that one?
they say she's a pretty girl as fair as summer with dark eyes and black hair who knows how to use a gun there's a place she want to be where the river meets the sea and the air is filled with salt and nicotine there's a map she can't read she's learning to she want to be a rich girl in her father's arms with a casa bonita that she can call her own you've got a lot of time to speak your mind and hold on to love the things of your youth that can carry you through hard times
