Deadsoul Tribe, You

Can you fill this emptiness inside
Can you share the secrets that you hide
Trying to find
A friend to end my pain
The faces change
But the feeling stays the same

You I need you I need you

I ve walked the longest mile of life alone Loneliness is the oldest friend I ve known Will an angel fall for me someday When I see her spread her wings She just keeps on flying

You I need you I need you

I need a friend I can run to Someone to crawl inside Someone to share my secret fear Someone who hurts as much as I

I can t believe that I can be so blind That such a simple thing is so hard to find

You I need you I need you
