

Deadstar Assembly, Insurrection Now costumed clowns are fed their sound produced and drowned by their own endorsements every trend is commodified - homogenized hipness it all dies

this is our sonic salvation suck off your own validation you just wait and see this is a revolution baby yeah let's tear this motherfucker down down insurrection now

let's tear this motherfucker down down
insurrection now
it's insurrection
yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah it's insurrection now we just want to be ourselves - nothing else our oddity is the real thing we won't be undermined or refined cause we're black inside

we don't want to act that way let's raise our fingers to the system and even if tomorrow never came we wouldn't care cause we're not to blame we don't want to live the life you live or give a shit about the way it is
raise your fingers
