

Deadstar Assembly, Naive

I'm everything you resent
I try my best to offend
A repetitious urge that I can't pretend
Another scar you scratch
Another stab in your back

Feeding the lie
This loveless degree
And everything dies
Because you have to be

So perfectly destroying me
How could you be so naive?
Destroying me so perfectly
How could you be so naive?
I bullshit you, you worship me
How could you be so naive
How could I be?

Every empty promise is as thin as your skin
My unconditional whore, am I sinking in?
The leading role in our facade
Disfigured love to no applause

Another scar to scratch
Another stab in the back
Your fair tale romance deceased
Feeding the like it's loveless conceived
And everything dies
Because you have to be

So perfectly destroying me
How could you be so naive?
Destroying me so perfectly
How could you be so naive?
I bullshit you, you worship me
How could you be so naive
So perfectly destroying me
How could I be?

Destroying me
Destroying me
Destroying me
So perfectly
Destroying

So perfectly destroying me
How could you be so naive?
Destroying me so perfectly
So perfectly destroying me
How could you be so naive?
Destroying me so perfectly
How could you be so naive?
I bullshit you, you worship me
How could you be so naive
So perfectly destroying me
Destroying
