use your smile to start the crush and use your charm to make me blush and use it all but it won't get you far you get everything you want wonder why my attraction to you is gone

because you want it so much I won't give it up you'll never know how it feel to tease my body with your touch you'll never know if I kiss on the first date the more you want it - more I wait infatuation tainted -(?)- long ago think you're clever; well, I'm better you'd fuck better in my sweater I'm much better fucking with your head

fake inside but my interest in you
is gone

more you want it, more I wait infatuation tainted -(?)- long ago before -(?)-

infatuation wouldn't wait for you to come
