

Dealership, Jungle Gym

you and i have to get out of stephan's way you and i have to make it home every day sneaker souls - they will remember stephan's name, drawn in gold until the beating of the rain, washed away - and then we used to call it fame

you and me, the things we climb the acid test
is getting down...

you and i have to get out of stephan's way is he louder each time he comes out to play?

(god you think you're fine...)
(god your looks are wasted...) (god i think your mess is better hewn than mine)
