

Dean Friedman, I Depend On You

by Dean Friedman

I'm not as strong as I would like to be.
Sometimes the current pulls me out to sea.
You're always there to rescue me.

I depend on you.
I depend on you.
When I need someone to see me through,
I depend on you.

Sometimes I sit around for days and days.
You try and tell me that it's just a phase.
You help me see the error of my ways.

I depend on you.
I depend on you.
When I need someone to see me through,
I depend on you.

I come in soaking wet from the storm.
You smile and tell me I'm just true to form.
I touch your body and it feels so warm.

I depend on you.
I depend on you.
When I need someone to see me through,
I depend on you.
