

Dean Lewis, In A Perfect World - feat. Julia Michaels

I'm so scared of falling I was in and out up and down too afraid to be open I found myself in you and it made me feel so fucking scared

'Cause when I am open all my past and all my pain floats up to the surface you can even cut me down with a smile it hurts so bad

So I leave when it gets too good Yeah yeah, I leave when it gets too good

But in a perfect world
I am here with you and I kiss you slow
in a dim lit room
when you ask me if I love you
I say I do
I'm not running from my problems and I'm not running from you and we're so damn happy
and I'm not confused
I'm not looking for an escape all
'cause I'm scared I might lose you
Oh, in a perfect world

Yeah, at least you're self aware I'll give you some credit but walking out on something perfect's really stupid yeah baby I said it you're so scared of regretting something before you can even regret it and we could be great and it would be great if you'd let it

Oh, but you leave when it gets too good Yeah, you (I) leave when it gets too good

I am here with you
in a dim lit room
I say I do
I'm not running from my problems and I'm not running from you

I leave when it gets too good (when it gets too good, you always) Leave when it gets too good

Oh, but in a perfect world there's just us two and I let myself get lost in you

when you ask me if I love you
I say I do
