

Dean Martin, If I Ever Get Back To Georgia

IF I EVER GET BACK TO GEORGIA

(Baker Knight)

'67 Unichappell Music

Well the wind blows cold in New York City along about the middle of now

And I'm telling you I'd be a happy man if I could get away somehow

Cause I'm growing old before my time finally I see the light

But if it costs a dime to get around the world I couldn't get out of sight

But if I ever get back to Georgia there'll be no messing around

If I ever get back to Georgia I gonna nail my feet to the ground

(In the cold cold ground)

Well the buildings here in New York City grow so doggone tall

Sometimes you can walk for a couple of days and never see the sun at all

So I left last night I was homeward bound now I wanna sit and I cry

Cause I stuck out my thumb till my thumb got numb and the cars went right on by

But if I ever get back to Georgia...

(In the cold cold ground)

Well I guess my time in New York City hasn't been a total waste

Cause I met a little girl from a social world I really put her in her place

When she sold me half of the Brooklyn Bridge I hung around just for spite

And I played this part till I won her heart and I bought the other half last night

But if I ever get back to Georgia...

But if I ever get back to Georgia...

(In the cold cold ground)
