Dean Martin, Mistletoe And Holly

Oh, by gosh, by golly It's time for mistletoe and holly Tasty pheasants, Christmas presents Countrysides covered with snow

Oh, by gosh, by jingle It's time for carols and Kris Kringle Overeating, merry greetings From relatives you don't know

Then comes that big night Giving the tree the trim You'll hear voices by starlight Singing a Yuletide hymn

Oh, by gosh, by golly It's time for mistletoe and holly Fancy ties an' granny's pies An' folks stealin' a kiss or two As they whisper, "Merry Christmas" to you

[Interlude: Then comes that big night Giving the tree the trim You'll hear voices by starlight Singing a Yuletide hymn]

Oh, by gosh, by golly It's time for mistletoe and holly Fancy ties an' granny's pies An' folks stealin' a kiss or two As they whisper, "Merry Christmas" to you
