

Dean Strickland, My Angel's Sweet Sweet Touch

I Don't know just what I would do
If my angel decided to leave
I certainly know though that I'll be blue
If tonight she doesn't return to me
Sure I'd miss all the wonderful conversations she and I've shared together so much
But when it gets down to it what I'd miss the most is my angel's sweet sweet touch

I love all the ways my angel touches me
That's easily understood everytime I'm with her she turns me on

And never fails to make it all good
Now don't get me wrong I do most certainly respect my angel's beautiful mind
But it's her loving touch I'd miss most of all if ever to leave me she were to decide
Oh, what I'd miss the most if my angel left is how her touch can take me to the highest places
Now one thing I have to do to keep things tight between my angel and me is be patient

So I'll stay cool and be hoping that soon she'll be on her way home to me
And if I must I'll wait her all night, or 'till whenever her return might be