

Dean Strickland, She Don't Love Me

She loves rainbows
She loves butterflies
She loves silver and turquois
She loves getting high
She loves flowers
Flowers of all kinds
She loves animals
Pet rats are her favorite kind
She'll love her friends
Untill the very end
But she don't love me

And that makes me sad
Sad as can be

Once upon a time I was friends with her
But then I blew it by acting like a stupid jerk
And though she really is the forgiving kind
I just can't seem to stop all my childish whining
And for the fact of that matter
I know the truth is
I got what I deserve
