

Dean Strickland, Something To You I Just Wante

Hey there girl do you realize
Every single guy
In here thinks you're beautiful?
They all say they like the way
You're body sways
Every movment's so graceful
Each ones wish is to be the man
With whom you'd share a dance
All night until sunrise
Let me try if I might
To make you smile
With this song of mine

Your hair is dark and pretty
Like the Dallas skyline in the night time
Your eyes are very lovely
Like a rainbow in the Texas sky
Your lips are full and red Like fresh strawberries picked at just the right time
Your cheeks are like the roses
You should always receive on Vanlentimes
Your face is like that of an angel
That's something to you I just wanted to tell
