

Deana Carter, Love Ain't Worth Making

~LOVE AINT WORTH MAKING~

Why did you have to forsake me
Couldn't you tell me goodbye
I've been waking up lately with tears in my eyes

Love Ain't worth making when it makes you the fool
A chance ain't worth taking
My heart is breaking
when she's holding you

You don't know how happy you made me
Couldn't you give it one more try
I know her arms are waiting to hold you tonight

Love Ain't worth making when it makes you the fool
A chance ain't worth taking
My heart is breaking
when she's holding you

So go on and pack up what's left
Of all that we shared
You're leaving me lonely tonight

Love Ain't worth making when it makes you the fool
A chance ain't worth taking
My heart is breaking
when she's holding you
