

Dear Ephesus, Ocean Deep

Oh to find some peace of mind rest for the soul.
Drifting out invitingly she welcomes me.
Caressed by your hand hearing warm gales low.
I am so relieved.
Sailing out through the waters of blissful love.
The sky as my friend and dolphins calling to me.
I look into you for miles.
The mountains below.
My love ocean eyes so true I'll never forget her.
My love whisper with words from your salt I'll never forget you.
Deep blue the touch of most holy God I'll never forget you.
I'll never forget.
