

Death By Stereo, Good Morning America

You make it easy
They tell you
They feed you
They breed you
You need it
You want it
Can't live without it
You make it easy
They change it
They hide it
They flaunt it
Control it
They got it
You know you want it
You make it easy
They sell you
They buy you
They trade you
They take you
They fuck you
And then they discard you
You make it easy
They train you
They fit you
They cane you
With false truths they rape you
And you let it happen!

They dish it, you take it
They dish it, you take it
They dish it, you take it
They dish it, you take it
They dish it, you take it
They dish it
YOU'RE FUCKED
