

Death SS, Profanation

I've committed a profanation and I cannot find salvation
'cause I never trusted your words.

You that talk about damnation
in this funeral oration are you sure of all the shit you're saying?

Are you a Holy man?
Tell me priest if you're a God!

Are you without a shame?
So why is your heart full of hate and wickedness?

Who commits a profanation
you that pray without vocation or the people that try to live this life?

You escape from all the troubles hide behind your dirty tunic and pretend to be the judge of souls.

You cannot turn me on
I know your weakness, I know your sins!

You're just a little priest and happiness is for you a profanation.

Profanation...
