

Death SS, Welcome To My Hell

Welcome to my hell welcome to the spell Cadavers, monsters and witches as well all together in my hell ring for you Satan's bell this is the end can't you tell.

Welcome here tonight in this place you have to fight When some devils turn on the light you will see this evil sight.

Welcome to my sin nothing to lose, nothing to win there's no pleasure, see what I mean like a nightmare it will seem your soul will fight and your mind will dream you'll be weak as you've never been.

Welcome to the reign of blood as you enter start to shout and your scream will be so loud when you find there's no way out.

Welcome to my hate here you will be my only mate and your thirst for power you can sedate but don't thank me and don't thank fate 'cause when you know the price it could be too late and your soul will have no escape.
