

Deathbot, Bombs in Bloom

Hey send my best
To those lovely ones
To those hungry sons
They can tap their shoes and their shades of blue and just mark my words
You can keep your thrills
Hey the devil lied
He buried my eyes
But I'll keep on rolling still
I can keep on rolling still

Now there's bombs in bloom
Don't shake if they swoon
As they all run for cover
Another and another
Don't you run run away
From my deathray
Won't suck your touch
and take away your

It's in these arms tonight
It's in these arms tonight
I will set you up
I will set you up

And I get no rest
With these robot arms
With these empty stars that pave my way
I'll walk these lines every last day
But they suck my blood
It's the pain that kills
I've been learning how to die these nights
But I'll keep on loving still I will keep on loving still

Now there's bombs in bloom
Don't shake if they swoon
As they all run for cover
Another and another
Don't you run run away
From my deathray
Won't suck your touch
and take away your

It's in these arms tonight
It's in these arms tonight
I will set you up
I will set you up
