

Deathboy, Pigfeed

Coat my dreams in blue
Make me feel it too
Slow my life to this
Make it least resist

What you want from me
I can never be
Still I contemplate
To retaliate

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

Soak away to haze
Be the latest craze
All inside your head
Turn it all to lead

Sunk with gravity
Low reality
Makes me scream inside
Your ambition blind

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

Try to make a sense
Of this difference
I can never give
How you want to live

Lacks a clearer scene
You have never been Blur my drive to be
how I need to see

What I want to do
Not inside of you
Loop your life around
What you've never found

Hope to visualise
Truth in all your lies
I can never gain
If I live the same
Yeah

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say

You drag me down
You burn me up
You throw it all away
You change what I say
