

Debelah Morgan, Fire And Desire

(Rick James)

Ooh, ooh, aah

Love them and leave them

That's what I used to do

Use and abuse it baby

Then I laid eyes on you

It was pain before pleasure

That was my claim to fame

With every measure baby

Taste your teardrops in the air oh yeah

I was cold as ice

(You cold as ice)

Baby baby

I wondered then (???) if I should know

Sugar sugar sugar sugar

Then I kissed your lips and you turned on my

Fire baby

And you burn me up within your flames

Took me a little higher baby

Made me live again

You turned on my fire baby

(Baby)

And you showed me what love can do

(Fire and desire)

Fire and desire baby

Feel it coming through

And I thank you baby

Because you changed

Ooh

(you were something)

Ooh

Love them and leave them

Oh, that's what I used to do

Use and abuse them, oh

Then I laid eyes on you

It was pain, pain before pleasure

That was my claim to fame

Use every measure

Tasting your teardrops ???

You were cold as ice

(You cold as ice)

Baby baby baby oh

You are the very ??? love

No no no no you were baby

Sugar sugar sugar

Didn't I kiss your lips

And you turn on my fire baby, baby

And you burn me up in flames

Oh you burn me

Took me a little higher baby

Made me live again

You turned on my fire baby

Baby

And you showed me what love can do

Fire and desire

Fire, fire oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Fire baby
