

Debelah Morgan, Win You Over

(Troy Taylor)

Uh

Mm

oh yeah

You know what I want

What?

I just want to win you over to me

I just wanna, I wanna win you over

I wanna win you over

I'll fight the strongest man in ??? battle

Because my love is strong for you

I'll go through hurricanes to see a shadow ???

There's just nothing I won't do

I just want to win you over to me

I just want to make you mine

I just want to win you over to me

I just wanna feel your arms around me

There's not a judge, there's not a mallet

That can stop me from claiming my ???

There's not a mile long enough

That can keep me from winning this race

I'll do anything

Any jungles I will swing

Any mountain I'll climb

Any ocean I will swim

No matter how high I will fly

Just to see my way to you

I just want to win you over to me

I just want to feel, feel your arms around me baby

I just want to win you over to me

I just want to feel

Over and over

I'll do anything

Any jungles I will swing baby

Any mountain I will climb

Any ocean I will swim

No matter how high, I will fly

Just to see my way to you

To you

Oh

Oh, you, oh love

With you, over and over

Oh yes, oh love, win you

Over and over

I just want to win you over to me

I just want to win you over to me

To me baby

To me baby

To me baby

Oh, just, oh love

Swim the oceans

Swing the jungles

Oh baby

Hey
