

Debeli Precjednik, Faraway From Home

surgically, please remove me cut off my umbilical cord and throw me anywhere

so alone
so scared and insecure
and oh, so cold
so far away from home
and everyone has a heart of stone

no, i don't belong
where you want me
i got my own
place where i cry and weep
and you are wrong
if you think you'll change me
no, you won't!
I don't belong here

Hold my hand
And take me any where I can't stay here
Not another minute

so alone
afraid and insecure

no, i don't belong
where you want me
and you are wrong
no, you won't!
I don't belong here
