

Debeli Precjednik, Justify Lying

You always have the latest news, but i
Just don't believe you
Popularity seems to be a goal
You're aiming for
But lies are the words you're using
Can't you see it's not as harmless
As you think
You're hurting people
By lying

I don't wanna talk to you, because...

Different roads you ought to go
To satisfy your cheap desires
You don't even know what is that thing
Called "truth";
Because all i see is you
Lying

I don't wanna talk to you, because
I don't wanna hear the lies from you
