

Deborah Conway, Only The Beginning

I like the way that you took advantage You stayed at my party till everyone went home A perfect stranger, need a place to lay your hat The lone ranger couldn't saddle me with that, but you were right on track

It's only the beginning but i've already gone and lost my mind, I feel like making daisy chains and playin' hide and seek when its only the beginning the fairy dust is still in sight , well this could be the love of a life time, even if it lasts a week Or even just a daydream

When we go walking along the river, watch the old man fishing sunny side of the pier its like a movie and you're my leading man the way you move me, you're just like Carey Grant, you wanna hold my hand

Its only the beginning and ive already gone and lost my mind , I feel like breaking window panes all up and down my street well its only the beggining we can bring the house down every night this could be the love of a life time
even if it lasts a week

Or just the sweetest daydream

Do you ever feel the passion to jump from a speeding train? like to feel the wheels beneath you I'd love to feel the rain that could wash away your pain

Its only

* music*

So hold me closer and let me feel you sigh the spanish birds aflight its only the beginning but ive already gone and lost my mind, i feel like breaking window pains all up and down my street any day now i will hear you call and this could be the love of a lifetime even if it lasts a week

Its only
its only
it only its only the beggining
its only the beginning
its only the beginning
anyday now, yeah baby, i will hear you call any day now

ooohhhhh
