

Deborah Cox, Did You Ever Love Me

Heartfelt conversations
we had every single night,
lying in bed together,
So why would there ever be a breakdown in communication,
And I'm just wondering was that the warm
and fuzzy feeling

(Chorus:)

Those good old days
seem like so long ago
I thought you cared about me then,
but now I don't know
Was there ever really love at all
in your heart
Was there ever really love at all
Did you ever love me

I wanna go back,
way back to the beginning when we could rely on each other Oh, I felt like a goddess floating on a cloud.
why'd you have to bring me down
With all this pain
and disappointment,
confused and bitter,
brokenhearted
With all the mysteries and my love memories

(Chorus:)

Those good old days
I thought you cared about me then,
but now I don't know
in your heart
Was there ever really love at all
Did you ever love me

(Bridge:)

I painted this perfect picture of you and me in my head I sacrificed my mind, body, and soul.
you showed me you didn't care Now did you ever stop and think about how you made my life a living hell It's so hard believing that you would treat me like this Now I'm questioning over and overad lib:

Did you ever love me?
did you ever love me?
Tell me baby, baby, baby, baby
Was there, was there ever really love?
Was there ever love at all?
Did you ever love me?
I need an answer
cause once this problem's solved
I can finally resolve and get over you
I need an answer

I can move on, oh yes
Did you ever love me?
