

Deborah Gibson, Your Secret

I don't wanna
No I'm not gonna
'Cause I don't wanna
Be your secret/No I don't wanna,
'Cause I'm not gonna
No, I don't wanna
Be your secret
Be your secret.

Just another night of loneliness
Just a night of me
Just another dream
Tell me what are we without openness
'Cause she's been getting more
And I've been getting less of you build my world
Now you're tearing it down
And I'm only one girl
Won't you please come around
'Cause you're here in my heart
And you're here in my head
And she's taken my pride
And my side of the bed

Chorus:
I don't want to be your secret
I'm not gonna kiss
If you're not gonna kiss and tell
You got me if you want to keep it
Can't keep me from the world
Can't keep me to yourself
No, I'm not gonna be your secret

I am only getting half a man
If she only knew
I'd get all of you
There's a purpose behind every plan
It's written in the stars
This little thing of ours
And she is holding your heart
While I'm holding your hand
And I want so much more
Darling, please understand
That you're here in my dreams
Every night and when I sleep
Just give me one dream I can keep

Chorus

Ohhhhhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Let it out, let it out to the world I'm your girl, boy

Chorus

You built my world
Now you're tearing it down
And she's taken our time and my side of the bed

Chorus

I don't wanna
'Cause I'm not gonna
No, I don't wanna
I'm not gonna be your...

Chorus
