

Debra Killings, Come On

Everybody's got somebody that Makes them wanna cry sometime
When you know the Lord's
Making a way out of nothing
So get on up and do somethin' 'bout it
It's the crying child
Now dry your eyes
Just know a better day's comin'

I don't know what you go through each and every day
but I know one thing stays true
Kinda let you set you mind at ease
His word let's you know that
You gon' be alright

So come on - you can do it
Cause I believe in you yeah
Come on yeah - you can make it

I ain't here to put you down Cause I've been around a little while and I've seen the world
So don't get emotional on me
I tell that it's in His eyes
His love is there and always will
That you can count on never changing

I don't know what you go through
each and every day
but I know one thing stays true
Hanging on the wall
He's right there to remind you
(You gon' be)
It's gonna be alright

So come on - you can do it
Cause I believe in you yeah
Come on yeah - you can make it
Cause I believe in you (repeat)
