

Deceased, Robotic Village

What will become of a world where so few know?
Most lives escaped their without soul. The Earth is full or robot minds. But who controls thought decline?
Detached senseless life brothers. They march programmed by others. In life forever they follow. In death another lives shadow.....
Blind, exist without a mind. In trance a corpse of time. Never knowing why. Never knowing why.
Never knowing why. Never knowing what their thoughts unknown will be. Now obey.....
Obey in the robotic village!!!!
