

Decibully, My Lighter And Strings

so you want to call it a problem? it's just a habit i have i would like to kick it somehow it's like quitting cigarettes but the harder that i try to break these chains the tighter they get
and the longer that it takes to stop this car the shorter the ride gets do you feel a sense of unexpected? it's like waking up from sleep but i would like to keep things quieter with my lighter and strings
the tighter they get
i'm on the sidelines keeping the bench warm for you reserved for old times with old friends who never seem to age
