

Declan De Barra, Throw Your Arms Around Me

If scars cast shadows when you're dreamin'
and time just won't heal your wounds That hole inside you keeps on weepin'
and you're feelin' all alone
then

Throw your arms around me
I'll be right here if you fall
I'll be right here if you need me
Right here if you call me, my friend

When there's no light in the evenings and there's no hope left inside of your heart

When all the things you ever dreamed of start to bleed and fall apart
then

Throw your arms around me
I'll be right here if you fall
Right here if you need me
Right here if you call me, my friend

I you feel you're slowly drowning under all these world's black days and you feel you're slipping under from the weight of all you're pain
then

I'll be right here if you fall
Right here if you need me

In my arms I carry you from here, me friend

I won't leave you down
