Living in a world
A world full of hate
Nothing can stop my feelings inside
Nothing can live after it dies

Relic
The world is a relic

To punish this world guilty of hate
Nobody will ever see the sun
Nobody will ever be young
Nothing can stop my feelings inside
Nothing can live after it dies

Relic
The world is a relic

I tried to live a normal life
I tried to be a normal guy
I tried to hide my better side
I tried to live, and deny
I tried but the world is dying
