

Decyfer Down, No Longer

I never knew just what to do,
When I came to life and all those promises,
Always earned every word that came along the way,
Now I know that what I sow, will always be the way things really just grow,
Forever now, please show me how,
To fight these feelings, they're still reeling

(Chorus:)

No longer will I have to remind the past,
Those I've come to glimpse of it, (Yeah)
No longer will I carry this weighted past,
Now I face the day with no shame.

I've always tried to live the life,
Now looking back, and it doesn't seem right,
How I lived, and never gived,
And always take what wasn't mine,
In discreet, could never keep a glimor in my soul of something more,
No longer I will sit and die, for something I don't even really care for

(Chorus)

Yeah

No longer...

(Chorus)

No longer
No longer

Now I face the day, with no shame
