

Dee D.Jackson, Meteor Man

And he came and he went
And he just disappeared
Like a flash in the night
When the dead are the feared
What a man, what a mind
He was all he could be
And he never see nothing
That's quite like me

Oh my meteor man...
Meteor man, meteor man...
I had the fire in my eyes
Meteor man, meteor man...
He was my meteor man
Meteor man, meteor man
There's no love in your soul
I have to let go

There was fire in his eyes
I was burnt by the flame
Like a tiger let loose
Satisfied to lay lame
He was power, he was strenght
And he came down on me
And had never felt nothing
quite so free

Oh my meteor man...
Meteor man, meteor man...
I had the fire in my eyes

Meteor man, meteor man...
He was my meteor man
Meteor man, meteor man
There's no love in your soul
I have to let go
Meteor man, meteor man...
When he disappeared
I had the tears in my eyes
Meteor man, meteor man...
Oh my meteor man...

Meteor man, meteor man...
I had the fire in my eyes
Meteor man, meteor man...
He was my meteor man
Meteor man, meteor man
There's no love in your soul
I have to let go
Meteor man, meteor man...
Oh when he came
And he said had never felt
Nothing like me
Nothing like me
Meteor man, meteor man
I had the teard in my eyes
When he flew from the sky
Meteor man, meteor man...

Oh my meteor man...
