

Deejay Bee & Sketchy, Walkaway

(Walk away)

Thoughts of you lay on my mind
Feelings lost, I need to find
The more I search the more they fade
I need to keep you in my life
Without you there's no sun to shine
How can you break my heart this way

And now, I am running
Don't know, where I am going
The sky, above has turned to grey

I try, but I can't find it
If this is what has been decided
I'll take the pain and walk away
