

Deep From Within, Mistakes To Kill

Forty hours, away from home again
My premonitions, complete nonsense my friend
So many reasons why, i make the same mistakes mistakes to kill, mistakes to kill

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die

I wouldnt change for the world
But I'd change the world for you
I got a million words to say
But how to same them
Is What I hate, What I hate
Its what I hate

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die

I wouldnt change for the world
But I'd change the world for you
I got a million words to say
But how to same them
Is What I hate, What I hate
Its what I hate

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die

I wouldnt change for the world
But I'd change the world for you
I got a million words to say
But how to same them
Is What I hate, What I hate
Its what I hate

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die

I wouldnt change for the world
But I'd change the world for you
I got a million words to say
But how to same them
Is What I hate, What I hate
Its what I hate

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die

Bridge

So as it rips at you it never ends
Again and again I stand in line
And I wait to die I wait to die
i wait to die
