

Deep Purple, The Unwritten Law

listen to me
i've got a warning for you you've got to learn to take more care 'cos if you swim in dirty water be careful how you dry your hair in a room within a room in a hole within a hole you've got to learn to share your secrets or you'll lose your soul i've got the evidence i know you broke the unwritten law another town another one night stand you know you broke the law it's so hard to hold back when the fire is in your eyes a silver dollar in my pocket i don't like surprises i've got your souvenir is that the price i've got to pay it ain't been that long since the last charade

i know you're guilty but i'm carrying the blame i took out much more than i put in and i felt the pain in a dirty little room
you told the truth with your eyes but you lied inside
