

Deep Voices, Your Picture (Oliver Revill

My love is here to stay

Lay down
The sky's so blue
Your picture in the moon
Stardust blown in your eyes
Love broken glass of lie
Go back to what you knew
Go back you'll find it true
Lay down the sky's so blue
Your picture in the moon

Broken glass
You're going under
No way to go
My love is here to stay
