

Deerhoof, Siriustar

Boom light that fire
Howl, howl, howl
Deergod's eyes
Wild music of the hoof playing in big fire
Boom light that fire
Howl, howl, howl
Lunatic night rises
Sonic of the moon flips them inside out

Glowing slowly

Sonic of the moon lifts us to higher
You got to rouse now
How, how, how?
Be a Sirius star
Nobody's no more fools you to think how
No gabs about them
No, no, no
Open your eyes wide

Breathe sets you free

Count the stars. Be blind to see
Whisper I will seek out
A luminous tonight
Sights are fading

Revive your fire
Now, now, now
We have wolf minds
Knock your door of the minds hard to wake them up
Bark to the moon loud
Shout, shout, shout
Make a wish come true

Glare eternity
