

Def Leppard, Can't Keep Away From The Flame

Lonely, lonely, lonely child, crystalline and lace
Won't you walk me awhile, put a smile upon my face
I don't wanna take your love in vain
Gonna keep on coming back again
Beauty leads the full grown child, a rose among the thorns
Like a ray of sunshine, she comes, heaven in my arms
I don't wanna take your love in vain
Gonna keep on coming back again

When I see you smilin'
It takes away my pain

Oh, there's no denyin'
Can't keep away from the flame

A thousand indian summers, die in desert sands
The moon and lover's shadows, they go slippin' through our hands
I don't wanna take your love in vain
Gonna keep on coming back again

I don't wanna take your love in vain
Gonna keep on coming back again
