

Def Leppard, Mirror, Mirror (Look Into My Eyes)

Mirror mirror
Just watchin' with your eye of glass
You're just a fortune wheel
With something that I wanna ask

Mirror mirror
Got my fate lyin' in your hands
You're the fool, you're the juggler
Hangman and lover, you're not like no other

Take a look into my eyes
Tell me what you see
Take a look into my eyes
Tell me is it true?
Take a look into my eyes
Oh when I look at you
Take a look into my eyes
Tell me is it me?
Is it really me?

Mirror mirror
Gotta know just what you see
My crystal ball
You're lookin' so sly and so sleazy

Mirror mirror
Hangin' there with that crack in your eye
You make me stumble, make me blind
Time after time and line by line

[Repeat Chorus]

Mirror mirror
Oh tell me
You're the fool, you're the juggler
I ain't met a lover, you're like no other

Take a look into my eyes
Tell me what you see
Take a look into my eyes
Tell me is it true?
Take a look into my eyes
Oh it just can't last
Take a look into my eyes
Gonna have to smash the glass

Take a look into my eyes
Take a look into my eyes
Take a look
Take a look into my eyes
Oh yeah
Take a look into my eyes
Take a look into my eyes
Take a look into my eyes
Take a look into my eyes
Take a look
Take a look into my eyes
Look into my eyes
Take a look into my eyes
Tell me if it's me
Baby, baby, baby, baby
