

Def Leppard, Who Do You Love

I'm driving off in the rain and snow
Oh, the jets ain't jumping cause the clouds too low
I wanna know, I wanna know, I wanna know
Ice on the window, the highway's a sea
Who do you love, is it him or is it me
Hey hey, I wanna know

I called Detroit city on the telephone
Who do you love, who do you love
The man on the line tells me you ain't home
Who do you love, who do you love
I don't know, who's that voice
What's in a name
There's a deep red glow in the early morning sky
Who do you love, better make up your mind

Don't wanna try love, don't wanna buy love
I just want your love babe

Alright
Oh hey

Well its five in the morning and the place is dead
Who do you love, who do you love
I'm gonna rest my body on an empty bed
Who do you love, who do you love
I don't know what's his name, baby
What's your game
Make up your mind are you his are you mine
When I get back I ask you one more time
Oh hey
Oh hey
