

Deftones, Lucky You

They'll come soon
I keep waiting... and I wait...
Won't somebody...save me....

And if you're feeling lucky... come and take me home
And if you feel loved
If you feel lucky, if you feel loved
If you feel lucky, if you feel loved

You've crossed the walls - Excelled
Further along through their hell
All for my heart, I watch you kill
You always have, you always will
Now spread your wings and sail out to me... [x2]

So if you're feeling lucky... come and take me home.
Come and take me home. [x4]

Yeah if you feel love...
(If you feel lucky, if you feel loved) [x6]

Crossed the walls - Excelled
Further along through their hell
For my heart
I watch you kill
You always have
You always will

You always have and always will
You always have
You always will
Spread your wings and sail out to me...
