

Deftones, Ohms

We're surrounded by debris of the past
And it's too late to cause a change in the Tides
So we slip into a hopeless sea of regret as i stare

Through
The haunted maze in your eyes
Right through
Where I'll remain for all time

And time won't change this
This promise we made
Yeah, time won't change this
It's how it'll stay

This is our time
We devour the days Ahead
We've been possessed by these changing Times
As we slip on through
We promise to meet again somewhere

Through
The haunted maze in our minds
Right through
Where I'll remain for all time

And time won't change this
This promise we made
Yeah, time won't change this
It's how it'll stay
