

Deine Lakaien, Lost

We did...used to...laugh and we did...used to...breathe and and now all is stuck in tears your eyes they are burning lips remain in taciturnity no more returning

What we did had to be done
all our faith lost and gone
what we did we never won lost our hope our aim all is gone
to close the door is never easy but we can't ignore
we can't ignore
what we lost we won't find see those eyes they turned blind

All those...nights warm...as fire take them...with me...cold desire where the naked fairies played the soil...it is...burning leaving...gloomy...emptiness nothing to say

lost our hope our aim all is gone
but we can't ignore
