

Deine Lakaien, The Walk To The Moon

When I heard you calling my name
I was drowned in the blue
Blackbird sang on a tree
I was drowned in the blue...
'Cause tonight we'll turn out all the lights
The night of love...
When I saw your face again
I was burned by snow
Found my trials in vain
...burned by snow...
'Cause tonight we'll turn out all the lights
The night of love
