Del Amitri, Baby, It's Me

Who's gonna call you up every single day? Who's gonna hold you hard when stuff gets ugly?

Cause baby if you wanna find someone As big as a door that fits in your palm A wall of support as small as a gun Can't you see? Baby it's me

Who's gonna miss you just cause you leave the room? Who's gonna kiss your brow when your dreaming haunts you?

Cause baby if you wanna find someone With all that they need but nothing they want Full of themselves but with a hole where you aren't Can't you see? Baby it's me

Baby it's me

Living in the lining Where your coins are chiming When we drive at night it's my eyes you're shining

Who's gonna call you up every single day? Can't you see Baby it's me
