

Del Amitri, Spit In The Rain

You can grin but you can't hide
All the emptiness inside
Since she left you like, spit in the rain
Without doubt it is true
She was the only love you knew
Now she's gone it fades away
Like spit in the rain
And you can try to find her
But you'll be looking in vain
Because love disappears like spit in the rain
You can try to figure out
Why you mean nothing to her now
But you might just as well
Just go spit in the rain
Maybe then you will find
Her sweet memory in your mind
Washed away, out of sight
Like spit in the rain
Without doubt it is true
Without her there's only you
But with a little luck and a little time
You'll pull through
